GRADUATE STUDENT RESOURCES

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

THE GRADUATE GARGOYLE

The Gargoyle icon was designed to create recognizable "identity" for students in all graduate divisions and professional schools. The idea was conceived by graduate students in search of an image to signal University-wide events, programs, and resources focused on graduate and professional school students and to build graduate community and camaraderie across all disciplines.

CENTER FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING (CTL)

http://teaching.uchicago.edu/ (773)834-4439 5845 South Ellis Avenue Gates-Blake 132

The Center for Teaching and Learning collaborates with faculty, graduate students, and administrators to promote a university culture committed to excellent teaching across departments. The Center emphasizes the importance of attending to student learning as the primary road to pedagogical improvement. While supplementing and offering support to pedagogical training programs organized within departments and schools, the Center also works directly with individual faculty and students on any issue related to teaching. Workshops, seminars and conferences are the usual way in which pedagogical topics are considered, but electronic and bibliographic resources, as well as consultation services are also available to the University community.

Mission/Vision - The mission of International House is to promote cross-cultural understanding, mutual respect and friendship among students and scholars and on the part of the people of metropolitan Chicago toward individuals of all nations and backgrounds. The role and mission of International House is more compelling now than ever. An increasingly interdependent world has made multicultural awareness and understanding an essential attribute for all our communities.

Brief History - International House of Chicago, founded in 1932 by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. is a dynamic program center and residence for international and American students from over fifty countries who attend colleges and universities throughout Chicago. In addition, Chicago's International House is part of a larger vision that includes Rockefeller founded Houses in four other cities – New York, Berkeley, Paris and Tokyo. The Chicago House has been home to over 40,000 persons from virtually every country.

Global Voices Program - International House also serves the greater Chicago community as a cultural center. Through the Global Voices Program, over 100 public programs are held each year including music and cultural performances, outreach programs with Chicago-area international organizations and foreign consulates, as well as forums and debates led by distinguished guest speakers from around the world.

Residential Fellowship Program - The International House Fellowship Program helps ensure the exceptional geographic, cultural and economic diversity that is central to the mission of the House. Fellows are selected on the basis of academic merit, leadership skills and their unique abilities to contribute to the social and intellectual life of International House. The Fellowship Program provides fellowships to graduate students representing every Division and Professional School at the University of Chicago. Awards range from $1,000 - $3,000 and are applied toward housing.

English Language Institute - The English Language Institute offers University international and domestic students, their families and persons from the community opportunities to build English language skills and to increase understanding of life in the United States. Programs include academic year courses and workshops including pronunciation/accent reduction, effective reading for ESL students and American classroom, and communication strategies. Other programs include a pre-matriculation program for incoming international graduate students and special programs with the Graham School of General Studies International Education Program. We also sponsor a Tutoring Program providing one-on-one and small group tutoring.

UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY SERVICE CENTER (UCSC)

http://ucsc.uchicago.edu 773 753 4483 5525 S. Ellis, Suite 160 Chicago, IL 60637

UCSC fosters the development of civic-minded students by providing substantive community service opportunities through community partnerships based on mutual trust and respect. The Center is a student-driven, community-service oriented office within Campus & Student Life that is accessible to our student interns 24/7. UCSC offers year-round programming that augments in-class learning and derives much of its success from the transparent interactions between students and the community.

Programs supporting Graduate Students:

- Community Service Fund provides funding for Recognized Student Organizations doing service activities
- Days of Service
- Off-campus Federal Work-Study
- Summer Links Internship Program paid, full-time internships with Chicagoarea nonprofit organizations
- Volunteer Referral to agencies throughout the Chicago area
- UCSC Internship program academic-year and summer internships coordinating UCSC's programs

Staff liaison for graduate students

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY

lib.uchicago.edu 773-702-4685

The Library's mission is to provide comprehensive resources and services in support of the research, teaching, and learning needs of the University community.

Collections

The Library builds collections of books, journals, CDs, DVDs, microfilms and more to support research, teaching, and learning; in addition, it strives to ensure the preservation and long-lasting availability of its collections. Read more at lib.uchicago.edu/e/collections.

Detailed information on discipline-specific books, journals, indexes and databases is available in the Library's Research Guides at guides.lib.uchicago.edu. The Special Collections Research Center (lib.uchicago.edu/spcl), located on the first floor of the Regenstein Library, houses rare books, manuscripts, the University Archives and the Chicago Jazz Archives.

Services

The Library provides access to, and aides in the discovery and use of, research materials through its many services:

- Interlibrary Loan
- Subject Specialists
- Dissertation Office
- Library Instruction
- Curriculum Support
- Consultations

ASK THE GARGOYLE

• Do you have a question about University services and you don't know where to turn?

ASK THE GARGOYLE!

• Does your student have a question about the University that you can't answer?

ASK THE GARGOYLE!

"Ask the Gargoyle" is a service that allows students, faculty, and staff to ask questions and get answers about University of Chicago services, policies, procedures, and more. No question is too small, no inquiry is too complex—The Gargoyle will find the answer!

Who: Students, faculty, and staff

What: Ask questions and get answers about UChicago services, policies, procedures, and more!

When: The Gargoyle will usually respond to you within 2 days of receiving your question.

Where: Answers to frequently asked questions will also be posted on Graduate Student Affairs' Facebook page, "UChicago Graduate Student Affairs," and the Graduate and Professional Student Gateway, https://grad.uchicago.edu.

Why: To get information on academic matters, financial matters, campus life, life in Chicago, health and safety, and policies and regulations.

How: e-mail your question to askthegargoyle@uchicago.edu

No question is too small, no inquiry is too complex:

The Gargoyle will find the answer!
